AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 2d Day of June 1743.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Seventh of this Inſtant June, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Fourteenth Day of July next.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to appoint Edward Croxhall, of Shuſtock, Eſq; to be Sheriff of the County of Warwick, in the room of Bourne Eabourne, Eſq; deceaſed.

Petersbourg, May 7. Some Days ago about 3000 Men marched from hence to Cronſtadt, in order to embark on board the Gallies lying in that Harbour; and on Tueſday the 3d Inſtant 24 Gallies, and 48 large Row-boats, having on board between 8 and 9000 Men, went from hence down the River Neva for Cronſtadt, where they are to be joined by 12 other Gallies, and then to croſs over to the Coaſts of Finland, under Convoy of a Squadron of 15 Ships of the Line, commanded by Admiral Gollowin. Several Regiments are about to embark on board ſome more Gallies lying here ready to receive them. Theſe, and ſeveral other Gallies which are ſtationed at Frederickſham, Helſingfors, and Abo, are likewiſe to join thoſe which are already gone down, and the whole Fleet of Gallies, when aſſembled, will conſiſt of about ſeventy, having on board 20000 Men. Field Marſhal Lacy commands in chief the Fleet, the Gallies, and the Land Forces, and when he went on board his Gally here, he hoiſted the Flag of Great Admiral of Ruſſia, and was ſaluted by the Cannon of the Fort and Admiralty. The General Officers who command under the Field Marſhal on board the Gallies, are the Lieutenant Generals Lewacheff and Soltikoff, and the Major Generals Steward and Lapuchin. On Wedneſday laſt her Imperial Majeſty, accompanied by the Great Duke, went to Peterhoff, a Summer Palace about 36 Werſt from this City, and ten from Cronſtadt, to which Iſland her Majeſty propoſed croſſing over the next Day, to ſee the Fleet and Gallies ſet Sail; but the Wind being contrary, they are ſtill detained there. Juſt before the Departure of the Gallies on Tueſday laſt, her Imperial Majeſty went on board Field Marſhal Lacy's, and was pleaſed to embrace the Field Marſhal, and wiſh him good Succeſs, preſenting him at the ſame Time with a Diamond Ring from off her own Finger.

Petersbourg, May 10. Yeſterday the Fleet and Galleys, under the Command of Admiral Gallowin and Field Marſhal Lacy, ſailed from Cronſtadt, and the Wind continues fair for them. His Imperial Highneſs returned to Town on Sunday, and the Empreſs is expected here this Evening. Admiral Baſs, who commands a Squadron of Seven Ships of the Line at Revel, which is to join the Fleet that is ſailed from Cronſtadt, having lately received Advice of ſome Swediſh Frigats and Tranſports being upon the Coaſts of Eaſtland, with a Deſign to make a Deſcent there, ſent out Part of his Squadron and took two of the Frigats and one Tranſport Ship, and diſperſed the reſt. General Keith hath already ſent out ſome Gallies from Abo, with 5000 Men on board.

Stockholm, May 17, O. S. On Saturday laſt the two Generals Lewenhaupt and Bodenbroke, were removed from their Houſes, where they had been under Arreſt ever ſince their Return from Finland, and carried to a publick Priſon here in Town. And Yeſterday they were brought under a ſtrong Guard before the Commiſſion and Court Martial appointed to try them. The Swediſh Gallies, which were on the Coaſt of Finland, have been obliged to retire at the Approach of thoſe of the Muſcovites, who are much ſuperior to them. The Swediſh Squadron, conſiſting of two Men of War and four Frigats, is poſted about the Iſland of Aland, to prevent, if poſſible, the Muſcovites from making a new Deſcent there, which 'tis thought they deſign to attempt. The Members of the Dyet are preparing to go and ſpend the Whitſun Holidays at their Country Houſes, where they will perhaps make a longer Stay than uſual, as no Buſineſs of great Conſequence can be tranſacted here till the Anſwer comes from Petersbourg, to the Reſolution taken by the States on Wedneſday laſt, concerning the Terms upon which they will make Peace with Ruſſia.

Ratisbon, May 30, N. S. The French Regiment of Horſe of Fitz James, which has been hitherto cantoned in the Villages about Stadt-amhoff, now camps near Weix, that in caſe the Huſſars, as is apprehended, ſhould attempt an Attack upon them, they might be able to retire forthwith over the Bridge of Boats. General de Ravois, and the reſt of his Officers, have removed all their Baggage and Equipage thro' this City into the Convent Briel, and he himſelf alſo has thought fit to take up his Lodgings there. The French have entirely cleared, within theſe two Days, the great Magazine of Meal, Oats, and Wheat, which they had got together at Munich, and have carried it down the Danube to Straubingen.

Ratisbon,

Ratisbon, May 31, N. S. The French have now abandoned Kyrn, Nittenau, Regenſtauf, Burglengenfeld, and other Places, and are all drawing towards Stadt-am-hoff, and over the Bridge of Boats near Weix into the Brother-Iſland, where their Camp is, which encreaſes every Day: The ſeparate Camp for their Artillery is on the Plain of St. Emeran towards Kumpf-mill. At Stadt-am-hoff, where they have almoſt emptied and carried off their Magazine, all the Houſes are cleared of every Thing that could be removed. The Intrenchments raiſed on Trinity Mount are as good as abandoned. The Redoubt above Weix has no Guard, but at Weix they have raiſed a Work ſtrongly guarded to cover the Head of their Bridge of Boats. No Body can gueſs at their Deſign, but in the mean Time this City is in a very dangerous Situation; however, it is not likely that Prince Lobcowitz will make any Attempt on this Side, it is rather conjectured that he will try to intercept their Retreat by the Way of Donawerth. Prince Charles has paſſed the Danube with his Army, and marched towards the Foreſt, to avoid croſſing the Iſer, but he will not want Means of repaſſing the Danube at ſome other Place, in order to fall upon the French, who give evident Proofs, in every Step they take, of the greateſt Conſternation.

Prague, June 1. Five Pieces of Cannon were taken at Deckendorf, and as many were found at Waſſenbourg, beſides which Prince Lobcowitz has found in an old Caſtle 860 Bombs, 32000 Cartridges, and an immenſe Quantity of Cannon Bullets. Prince Charles's Equipages have been unfortunately burnt in a Barn, and not without a Suſpicion of its having been done by ſome treacherous Incendiary. The Bavarians at Braunau have paſſed the Inn in Boats, and recovered the Head of their Bridge; upon their diſlodging an advanced Poſt of the Auſtrians, General Kelverich came up, and had the Misfortune to be dangerouſly wounded. It is ſuppoſed that the Bavarians will by this Time have been ſhut up again in the Town.

Prague, June 2, N. S. General Holowrath is ſent to ſummon Egra; but the great Cannon will hardly move from hence till after the Departure of the Queen, which remains fixed to the 16th of this Month.

Prague, June 3, N. S. We have received the following Particulars here of the Operations of our Armies upon the Danube, &c. General Tornaco, with his Detachment, and chiefly with 1200 Lycaners, deſtroyed all the Outpoſts and Redoubts about Deckendorf, and was even near entering the Town with the Enemy, the Garriſon of which was compoſed of 14 Battalions of French: The Lycaners killed about 150 Men, and brought off their Arms. Prince Charles being arrived at Nieder Altaich, where he had fixed his Bridge in the Night between the 26th and 27th, ordered Lieutenant General Browne, with 20 Companies of Grenadiers, two Regiments of Horſe, and a good Body of Croates, to attack Deckendorf, as being of the utmoſt Importance, both as to the free Communication of the Danube, as alſo that of the Iſer, being ſituated at the Mouth of this laſt River, and being abſolutely neceſſary for the Succeſs of our future Operations. He began the Attack before Day-break on the 27th; the Lycaners found Means to enter the Town on one Part, whilſt the Grenadiers and Croates jump'd over the Paliſadoes, a double Ditch, and Walls; they fell upon the French ſo briskly, that thoſe who were out of the Town retired with the greateſt Precipitation, and of thoſe who were in it we made a conſiderable Slaughter, above 300 remain'd on the Spot, and when the Courier was diſpatched on the 27th we had 360 Priſoners, and all their Baggage. They attempted to burn a Bridge of Boats which they had, and another of Rafts, but our Grenadiers and Croates threw themſelves into the Danube, and ſwam to ſave it, in which they ſo well ſucceeded, that we have both thoſe Bridges intire, which is of the greateſt Importance, as we can form them as well on the Iſer as the Danube, and ſo have a clear Paſſage over both thoſe Rivers. We have loſt about 60 Men; the Action laſted from Break of Day to about Six in the Morning. The French, who lay juſt behind the Town, as well as thoſe who eſcaped out of it, are retired towards Straubing, followed by our Croates and Lycaners. The French were then making a general Waſh of their Linnen, but it fell into the Hands of our Croates. We have taken all the Prince of Conti's Linnen and Baggage, of all which Prince Charles could recover and ſend him back his Poſt Chaiſe only. We expect an Officer hourly who is to bring us further Particulars, this important Place having opened our Paſſage, and facilitated intirely our Subſiſtance from Paſſau, and up the Danube, we have paſſed that River, and have already our advanced Poſts as far as Ober-Altaich; we ſhall join Prince Lobcowitz, and it is thought the Deſign is to prevent the Eſcape of the French out of Bavaria; for whilſt Prince Lobcowitz advances from Schwandorff towards the Danube, his Highneſs Prince Charles keeping the Danube with all the right Wing of the Army, may place himſelf in ſuch a Manner, either at Taunerſtorff or Ratisbon, as to cut off both their Retreat and Subſiſtance. Prince Lobcowitz was on the 26th and 27th with Prince Charles, in order to concert the future Operations. The Left Wing of the Army is left at Dingelfing, and along the Iſer, as well to obſerve the French as Marſhal Seckendorf, who lies at Morſpurg intrenched between two Rivers the Iſer and the Amber, with what Remains he could pick up of the Bavarian Army, and what Peaſants would join him, to prevent this latter from making any Attempt for the Relief of Braunau; for which Purpoſe alſo General Nadaſti is advancing with his Huſſars and the Body of Croates who took Aurburg and Roſenhaim, as far as Dingelfing, to join our Left Wing. We have now all the Inn free except Braunau, having garriſoned Waſſerburg, Roſenhaim, Burckhauſſen and Aurburg. We have taken at Deckendorf Six Pieces of French Cannon with their Carriages, and the Horſes who were to carry them off.

Hanover, June 5, N. S. This Morning the King, attended by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, Prince William of Heſſe, the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret, and many of the Nobility, foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, went to the Linden Common, and reviewed Brigadier General Mather's Regiment of Foot, with whoſe Appearance and Exerciſe his Majeſty was very well pleaſed.

Hanover,

Hanover, June 7, N. S. The King has fix'd his Departure from hence to the Army for Monday the 17th Inſtant; and the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret propoſes leaving this Place on Thurſday next, or this Day Seven-night.

Liege, June 7, N. S. Yeſterday twenty-four Engliſh Officers and 200 Recruits arrived upon this Frontier in their Way to the Army commanded by the Earl of Stair; and they will be followed To-morrow by 200 Horſe and Dragoons. A Detachment of M. de Noailles's Army ſurprized the Town of Wimpfeu, a very ſtrong Poſt in the Circle of Franconia, on the 26th paſt in the Morning, and placed a numerous Garriſon there.

Hoechſt, June 7. The French, after having made a Detachment into Bavaria, of 12 Squadrons and 12 Battalions, have paſſed the Rhine, and now are encamped on this Side of it, with their Left towards that River, behind a Sort of Canal, which runs all along their Front. This Morning General Dupontpietin's Regiment, which makes the firſt Diviſion of the Hanoverian Cavalry, arrived in the Camp, and the other Diviſions will follow, Day after Day; the fourth had already paſſed the Rhine upon the 6th Inſtant.

Hague, June 11, N. S. They write from Utrecht, that his Majeſty's Field Equipages departed from that Town the 8th, 9th and 10th Inſtant for the Army under the Earl of Stair; and that the Duke of Richmond was to follow them Yeſterday with ſeveral other Officers and Gentlemen belonging to his Majeſty's Houſhold. Marſhal Broglio, after having abandoned Stadt-am-hoff the 1ſt of this Month, retired and paſſed the Danube near Weix; whereupon the Auſtrians entered the ſaid Town of Stadt-am-hoff the Day following. Marſhal de Noailles, upon Lord Stair's paſſing the Mayn, retired likewiſe, and is ſaid to have ſent a Succour of 15000 Men to Marſhal Broglio. Upon the Prince of Waldeck's Requeſt to the States General, their High Mightineſſes have allowed him to ſerve in one of the Queen of Hungary's Armies in Germany, as General of Foot, purſuant to her Majeſty's Deſire; but upon Condition of his repairing hither upon the firſt Warning. The States of Holland, who ſeparated on Saturday laſt, are to meet again To-morrow Seven-night, when they are to deliberate upon the State of their Finances.

Whitehall, June 4.

His Majeſty's Ship the Portmahon, commanded by the Hon. Captain Henry Aylmer, being on a Cruize, received Intelligence from the Maſter of a Dutch Ship on the 20th of laſt Month, that three Days before he had met with a Spaniſh Privateer in the Lat. of 46°. 25′ N. which, when they parted, ſtood to the Northward, with deſign, as he believed, to cruize on the Coaſt of Ireland: Upon this Captain Aylmer went in queſt of the Privateer, and on Sunday the 29th, in the Lat. of 50°. 16′ N. fell in with her, and after maintaining a running Fight, from Five till Ten o'Clock in the Morning, ſhe ſtruck; and Captain Aylmer has brought her into Kingroad. She is called the Santa Thereſa de Jeſus, of St. Sebaſtian, of 16 Carriage Guns, and 147 Men of different Nations, ten of which were killed and fourteen wounded in the Engagement; and was commanded by Francis Bonnett, a Frenchman. She had been out twenty Days, but had taken no Prize. The Portmahon had but one Man wounded in the Arm.
